

The Legacy Lounge Podcast with Tiffany Neuman
Season 1, Episode 60
Celebrating One Year of The Legacy Lounge with a Special Guest

INTRO: Hi, I'm Tiffany and you are listening to The Legacy Lounge podcast. If you are a high achieving, mission-driven entrepreneur who wants to elevate your income, impact, and influence, you're in the right place.

I left my corporate career as a creative director for Fortune 500 brands to create a legacy with my work and to support entrepreneurs to do the same. I'm not talking about having your name on a building or statues in your image. I'm talking about leaving behind a positive impact and creating something enduring that can be passed on. You pour your time, energy and passion into your business, so let's make sure your efforts will create a ripple effect that reaches far into the future.

Each monthly series will guide you through the business leadership and life skills you need to successfully leave a legacy that stands the test of time, and each episode is totally valuable on its own. We are here to provide you with the tools and ideas to make massive shifts and quantum leaps in your business, transforming you from entrepreneur into legacy brand.

TIFFANY: Hey there. I am super excited as we are having a bonus episode today, and I have a special guest that I will announce in just a moment. But first I wanted to just say that we are celebrating a year here at the Legacy Lounge Podcast. And it was one year ago that I had the idea for this amazing podcast inspired by my daughter, Emerson, because it was her birthday, and she is one of the biggest pieces of the legacy that I am leaving in my life.

Now, of course, if you've heard me speak before, I talk about not only leaving a legacy, but living our legacies now. So I was inspired to bring on Emerson as my special guest today, and she has a special message just for you.

EMERSON: Hey, everyone. Have you ever thought about what you want to leave behind in the world? Maybe you want to make a difference in people's lives, like becoming a doctor or a firefighter. Or maybe you want to create something new and amazing, like invent a technology or write a book. Whatever your dream is, it's important to remember that your legacy is about more than just what you accomplish. It's also about the way you treat people, the values you live by, and the positive impact you have on the world around you.

Think about your heroes and role models. What do they stand for? What are their values and how do they inspire others? Now, think about how you can apply those same principles to your own life. Maybe it's by volunteering at a community, standing up for what is right, or just being kind to others every day.

Remember, your legacy isn't just about what you do, it's about who you are. So keep dreaming big and always strive to make the world a better place. You never know who you might inspire along the way.

TIFFANY: Thank you, Emerson. And I hope you enjoyed this Legacy Love note bonus episode celebrating a full year of the Legacy Lounge podcast. And from our family to yours, we just want to say thank you for listening.
